THE PLOT

It all started with the summer holidays of Zoe and two more children, Lina and Alex in Aegina. The island means a lot to Zoe. Soon, the group of friends grows with Rania, Sophie and Nicole – the oldest of all the children – and summer becomes more interesting. This is because Nicole reveals her plans to find information that will give answers about Hans Schulz, a German who lost his memory when he stepped on a mine in Aegina during the German Occupation. Soon they see that they are looking for a treasure from this dark era. After many adventures and secrets revealed, the children get to the solution of the mystery and the hidden treasure.

MY OPINION: The story was worth reading. I liked the book a lot.
